POLIMI Graduate School of Management is committed to diversifying education abroad by providing funding to students who are typically underrepresented in study abroad. Please describe how you and/ or your plans for study abroad could qualify for such a scholarship.

2. SUBMISSION OF AND DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION

A Financial Aid Request Form (provided upon request) must be completed and uploaded together with a copy of the candidate's latest pay slip to their application profile.

The number of scholarships is limited and the contributions will be given out on a rolling basis. Therefore, early applications are encouraged and may also mean that candidates are eligible for an additional, Early- Bird discount on tuition fees.

3. EVALUATION AND OUTCOME OF APPLICATION

Candidates will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

- Academic and professional record;
- Results of the MBA selection process;
- Assessment of their written essay.

The successful candidate will be notified formally by the Committee via their admissions email and contract. The scholarship is awarded at the sole discretion of the Committee, whose decision is final and cannot be appealed against.

4. INCOMPATIBILITY AND LOSS OF SCHOLARSHIP

This contribution can be combined with other scholarships, awards and/or financial support for specialisation courses offered by public or private bodies and/or companies, as long as the total amount does not exceed the total amount of the tuition fees.

The beneficiary must self-certify that this total sum has not been exceeded.

The beneficiary must comply with this condition for the whole duration of the MBA program.

5. ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONDITIONS

Candidates applying for general country-based aid must confirm their full acceptance of the related conditions, of which they will be notified in writing in the letter of assignment of the contribution.
